ANALYSIS & IMPORTANCE OF APPROVAL/ SANCTION BEFORE ISSUING NOTICE UNDER RELEVANT SECTION

Importance of Approval/ Sanction

- 1. Hon'ble apex court in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal [2024] 167 taxmann.com 70 (SC) on quality of approval/ sanction u/s 151.
- 2.Sanction of specified authority: Section 151 imposes a check upon the power of Revenue to reopen assessments. The provision imposes a responsibility on the revenue to ensure that it obtains the sanction of the specified authority before issuing a notice under section 148. The purpose behind this procedural check is to save the assessee from harassment resulting from the mechanical reopening of assessments.

Meaning of Approval

Hon'ble apex court in case of CMJ Foundation and Others (Appellant) vs. State of Meghalaya and Others (Respondents) 2025 INSC 211.

Approval means confirming, ratifying, assenting, sanctioning or consenting to some act of thing done by another. The very act of approval means, the act of passing judgement, the use of discretion, and determining as an adjudication therefrom unless limited by the context of the statute.

In the present case, it is an undisputed fact that the Visitor's approval was never granted for the appointment of the Chancellor of the University.

Therefore, the contention of the Ld. Counsel for the appellants that the failure of the visitor to grant approval for appointment of the Chancellor would lead to a 'deemed approval' is totally misplace and unsubstantiated by law.

It is a settled legal proposition that if a statute provides for the approval of the higher authority, the order cannot be given effect to unless it is approved and the same remains inconsequential and a dead letter in eyes of law.

Requirement of Approval

APPROVAL MUST BE DATED

As per the decision of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in case of CIT vs. Prahalad Singh ITA no. 91 of 2019 wherein it is held that an approval must be dated.

APPROVAL MUST BE SIGNED

As per the decision of Hon'ble Telangana High Court in case of M/s Bigleap Technologies and Solutions Pvt. Ltd. and Others vs. State of Telangana, W.P. no. 21101 of 2024 wherein it is held that unsigned document has lost its efficacy. Therefore, an approval must be signed.

APPROVAL MUST BE IN RELEVANT PRESCRIBED PROFORMA AS PER CBDT GUIDELINES

It is necessary for the revenue to obey CBDT guidelines before issuing the notice.

APPROVAL MUST BE BY SPECIFICED AUTHORITY AND NOT ANYONE ELSE

Hon'ble Delhi HC in case of Abhinav Jindal HUF case 468 ITR 787 and many other decisions on same lines (including Hon'ble apex court in case of Rajeev Bansal) has held that approval must be by specified authority only and not anyone else.

Requirement of Approval

SUBSEQUENT TO THE SAME

Where there is statutory requirement to obtain prior approval of specified authority before issuing the notice under relevant section then such a requirement cannot be overlooked for issuing the notice. Thus, where a prior approval is required then the approval cannot be taken subsequently. Refer decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Independent Sugar Corporation Ltd. (Appellant) vs. Girish Sriram Juneja & Ors.(Respondents).

PROFORMA PROFORMA

On issue of fatal impact of incorrect fact stated in SANCTION PROFORMA if sanctioning authority u/s 151 is not able to correct error apparent on fact of proforma of sanction then reopening would be invalidated ACIT vs. Kartik Sureshchandra Gandhi SLP 48253/ 2024. In the said decision it was held that "Even otherwise, we have gone through the SLP and do not find any merit in the in the same. The SLP is therefore dismissed on ground of delay as well as on merits."

Requirement of Approval

APPROVAL MUST BE WITH DUE APPLICATION OF MIND

While issuing notice under relevant section approval must be granted with due application of mind. Refer decision of Hon'ble Bombay High Court in case of C. C. Dangi and Associates vs. ACIT.

*APPROVAL MUST BE SUPPLIED TO THE ASSESSEE ALONGWITH RELEVANT NOTICE/ ORDER

Hon'ble SC High Court in case of ITO vs. M/s Tia Enterprises Pvt Ltd., [2024] 468 ITR 10 (SC) has upheld the decision of Hon'ble Delhi HC in case of M/s Tia Enterprises Pvt Ltd. vs. ITO wherein it was since the copy of approval was not supplied by the A.O. even after the request of the assessee proved that the condition requiring the A.O. to obtain prior approval of the specified authority was not fulfilled as otherwise, there was no good reason not to furnish it to the assessee along with copy of reasons recorded.

IMPACT OF DECISION OF SC IN CASE OF UOI VS. RAJEEV BANSAL [2024] 167 taxmann.com 70 (SC)

Impact of decision of SC in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal

➤ UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal [2024] 167 taxmann.com 70 (SC)

- 1.TOLA will continue to apply to the Income Tax Act after 1 April 2021 if any action or proceeding specified under the substituted provisions of the Income-tax Act falls for completion between 20 March 2020 and 31 March 2021. Once the first proviso to Section 149(1)(b) is read with TOLA, then all the notices issued between 1 April 2021 and 30 June 2021 pertaining to AY 2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, and 2017-18 will be within the period of limitation.
- 2. Therefore, this judgement will be applicable only in cases if notice is issued for AY 2013-14 to AY 2017-18 between 01 April 2021 to 30 June 2021.
- 3. The impact of the decision can be explained for different A.Y. which is as follows:
- SAY 2013-14 & 2014-15
- EAY 2015-16
- SAY 2016-17 & 2017-18

Impact of decision of SC in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal

For AY 2013-14 & 2014-15:

- 1. After the decision of Hon'ble High Court in case of UOI vs Ashish Agarwal directions were given to the department to treat the notice issued u/s 148 of old regime as notice issued u/s 148A(b) of the amended and pass an order u/s 148A(d) and issued a new notice u/s 148 as per the requirement of the Amended Act or New Regime.
- 2. Department as per the directions of Supreme Court conducted inquiry proceedings and issued the notice u/s 148 of the I. T. Act, 1961. However, the said notice was required to be issued within the surviving time limit and if the reassessment notice is issued beyond surviving time limit, then such notice issued u/s 148 of the I. T. Act, 1961 is time-barred.
- 3. What is surviving time limit?? Surviving or balance time limit is the number of days between the date of issuance of the deemed notice and 30 June 2021. Let us understand the same with an illustration:

Particulars	Notice is invalid	Notice is valid
Extended deadline to issue notice u/s 148 as per	30/06/2021	30/06/2021
TOLA and notifications issued
Notice issued under old law	28/06/2021	06/05/2021

Impact of decision of SC in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal

For AY 2015-16:

can

1. Any notice issued u/s 148 of the I. T. Act, 1961 between 01 April 2021 to 30 June 2021 for initiating reassessment proceedings for AY 2015-16, then the same is required to be dropped as they will not fall for completion during the prescribed period under TOLA. Since TOLA will be applicable only for action or proceeding specified under the substituted provisions of the Income-tax Act falls for completion between 20 March 2020 and 31 March 2021. However, provisions of TOLA is not applicable for AY 2015-16 since the due date for issuing the notice under old and new regime do not fall between 20 March 2020 to 31 March 2021. The same

Particulars	Due Date
Last date to issue notice u/s 148 as per Amended Act 2021	Within 3 years – 31/03/2019
Last date to issue notice u/s 148 as per Amended Act 2021	Within 6 years – 31/03/2022

2. Therefore, proceedings initiated for AY 2015-16 by issuing notice u/s 148 shall become invalid as provisions of TOLA is not applicable to them.

Impact of decision of SC in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal

For AY 2015-16:

3. Recently a judgment was passed by Hon'ble Madras High Court in case of Ramadoss Srikanthi vs. ACIT, [2025] 174 taxmann.com 150 (Madras) wherein it was held that, for AY 2015-16, Where impugned notice dated 31-3-2021 under section 148 was issued within extended limitation period under section 149(1)(b) as it stood till 31-3-2021, such notice could not be said to be time-barred even after application of first proviso to section 149 as amended with effect from 1-4-2021.

For AY 2015–16, the assessee challenged the original notice issued u/s 148 dated 31-03-2021 (issued under the old law), the order under Section 148A(d) dated 30-07-2022, and the fresh Section 148 notice dated 30-07-2022 under the amended regime effective from 01-04-2021. It was held that the original notice dated 31-03-2021, issued within the extended limitation under Section 149(1)(b) (as it stood prior to 01-04-2021), was valid and not time-barred, even after the amended first proviso to Section 149. The reassessment proceedings rightly continued under the new regime by treating the original notice as a deemed Section 148A(b) notice, and the limitation was to be computed excluding the time taken for the show-cause and response, as clarified by the SC in Rajeev Bansal. Hence, reassessment was held to be both procedurally and legally valid.

Impact of decision of SC in case of UOI vs. Rajeev Bansal

For AY 2016-17 & AY 2017-18:

- 1. Non-compliance by the assessing officer with the strict time limits prescribed under section 151 (as amended by Finance Act, 2021) affects their jurisdiction to issue a notice under section 148.
- 2. Provisions of section 151 state that:
- (i) Principal Commissioner or Principal Director or Commissioner or Director, if three years or less than three years have elapsed from the end of the relevant assessment year
- (ii) Principal Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or where there is no Principal Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General, Chief Commissioner or Director General, if more than three years have elapsed from the end of the relevant assessment year.
- 3. Thus, the impact of the decision on Supreme Court for AY 2016-17 & AY 2017-18 was that, if the notice u/s 148 is issued after a period of 3 years from the end of the relevant assessment year then approval was required to be taken u/s 151(ii) of the I. T. Act, 1961 i.e. approval of Pr. CCIT or Pr. DGIT was required to be taken. Let us understand the same with help of an example

For AY 2016-17 & AY 2017-18:

4.relaxes the time limit for compliance with actions that fall for completion from 20 March 2020 to 31 March 2021. TOLA will accordingly extend the time limit for the grant of sanction by the authority specified under section 151.

The test to determine whether TOLA will apply to Section 151 of the new regime is this: if the time limit of three years from the end of an assessment year falls between 20 March 2020 and 31 March 2021, then the specified authority under section 151(i)

has an extended time till 30 June 2021 to grant approval

ORDER PASSED IN CASE IF NON-EXISTING ENTITY/ DEAD PERSON HELD TO BE INVALID

Order passed in case if non-existing entity held to be invalid

PCIT vs Maruti Suzuki India Ltd [2019] 107 taxmann.com 375 (SC)

Where assessee company was amalgamated with another company and thereby lost its existence, assessment order passed subsequently in name of said non-existing entity, would be without jurisdiction and was to be set aside.

Section 170, read with section 292B, of the Income-tax Act, 1961 - Succession to business otherwise than on death (Validity of assessment) - Assessment year 2012-13 - Whether issuance of jurisdictional notice and assessment order thereafter passed in name of non-existing company is a substantive illegality and not a procedural violation of nature adverted to in section 292B - Held, yes. Whether, therefore, where during pendency of assessment proceedings, assessee company was amalgamated with another company and thereby lost its existence, assessment order passed subsequently in name of said non-existing entity would be without jurisdiction and was to be set aside - Held, yes

Order passed in case if non-existing entity held to be invalid

➤DCIT vs. Sterlite Technologies Ltd., [2025] 171 taxmann.com 427 (SC)

The Assessing Officer issued a notice under Section 148 on 30-03-2021 for AY 2013-14 in the name of Company 'E', which had ceased to exist due to amalgamation with the assessee-company effective from 29-09-2015. Despite being informed of the amalgamation on 28-04-2021, the AO proceeded to issue further notices and passed an assessment order against the non-existent entity. The High Court held that issuance of notice and subsequent proceedings in the name of a non-existent entity were void ab initio and thus set aside the assessment and penalty proceedings. The Supreme Court dismissed the Special Leave Petition (SLP) filed against the High Court's order, affirming that proceedings initiated against a non-existent entity are invalid in law.

Notice issued in case of dead person held to be invalid

► ITO Ward 1(3)(7), Surat vs Durlabhbhai Kanubhai Rajpara [2020] 114 taxmann.com 482 (SC)

Where High Court set aside reassessment proceedings on ground that no valid notice under section 148 could be issued against a dead person, SLP filed against said order was to be dismissed.

Section 148 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 - Income escaping assessment - Issue of notice for (Notice to dead person) - Pursuant to summons issued in name of assessee's father under section 131(1A), assessee brought to notice of revenue authorities that his father had already died - Despite knowing said fact, Assessing Officer issued notice in name of assessee's father under section 148 seeking to reopen assessment - Assessee thus filed instant petition contending that impugned notice was without any jurisdiction which was issued against a dead person - High Court held that no valid notice could be issued against a dead person and, thus impugned notice was required to be quashed and set aside - Whether, on facts, SLP filed against order of High Court was to be dismissed - Held, yes [Para 2][In favour of assessee]

CROSS EXAMINATION

Cross – Examination

➤ Kishinchand Chellaram vs CIT [1980] 4 Taxman 29 (SC)

Before the income-tax authorities could rely upon it, they were bound to produce it before the assessee so that the assessee could controvert the statements contained in it by asking for an opportunity to cross examine the manager of the bank with reference to the statements made by him.

"Section 23(3) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 [Corresponding to section 143(3) of the Income-tax Act, 1961] - Assessment - Income from undisclosed sources - Employee of one office of assessee made, through a bank, telegraphic transfer of certain amount to employee of another office - ITO, on the basis of letters from bank manager, not shown to assessee, treated amount so remitted as income from undisclosed sources - Tribunal, relying on letters of bank manager, upheld ITO's action - Whether tribunal justified - Held, on facts, no - Whether burden of proof lay on department to show that remitted amount belonged to assessee by bringing proper evidence - Held, yes"

Cross – Examination

≻H.R Mehta vs ACIT [2016] 72 taxmann.com 110 (Bombay)

The revenue was not justified in making addition at the time of reassessment without having first given the assessee an opportunity to cross examine the deponent on the statements relied upon by the ACIT. Quite apart from denial of an opportunity of cross examination, the revenue did not even provide the material on the basis of which the department sought to conclude that the loan was a bogus transaction.

"Where assessee had taken loan from one 'N' and Assessing Officer added loan amount in income of assessee under section 68 on basis that no confirmation letter had been obtained from 'N', since loan was advanced and repaid vide account payee cheques, Assessing Officer should have provided assessee material used against him apart from providing him an opportunity to cross examine deponents whose statements were relied upon"

Loose Papers found during course of search to be treated as Dump Document

➤ ACIT vs. Shanker Nebhumal Uttamchandani [2024] 161 taxmann.com 536 (Surat-Trib.)

Assessing Officer made addition on basis of a paper found and seized from office premises of assessee allegedly showing some transaction of land – On appeal, CIT(A) found that such paper was not in handwriting of assessee or his family members and there was no direct evidence found or brought on record that assessee had ever purchased or sold any land - Commissioner (Appeals) held that such loose paper was nothing but a dump document which could not be relied upon solely for making huge addition - Whether since Assessing Officer had neither brought any corroborative evidence nor further investigated fact nor referred any corroborative evidence if collected during search action by Investigation Wing, Commissioner (Appeals) was justified in deleting addition

Addition made by AO on account of some undisclosed land transaction on basis of a loose paper found during search at assessee's premises was not justified when said paper was not in handwriting of assessee and there was no direct evidence found or brought on record that assessee had ever purchased or sold any land.

Electronic material without Corroborative Evidence to be treated as Dump Document

➤ Rucha Consultancy LLP vs. DCIT, CC-6(1) [2025] 174 taxmann.com 221 (Mumbai - Trib.)

Where additions were made under sections 69A and 69C respectively on basis of a WhatsApp image found in phone of assessee's personal assistant, which neither bore assessee's name nor was corroborated by independent evidence, and no physical cash was found with assessee, said document was to be treated as a dumb document and impugned additions were to be deleted.

Whether, where addition was made under section 69C on basis of image found in employee's mobile phone showing alleged cash disbursements, but said image did not contain assessee's name & was disowned by assessee, and no corroborative material was brought on record, such image was to be treated as a dumb document and addition was liable to be deleted.

Pursuant to search and seizure operation at residential premises of assessee, certain loose papers were found and seized wherein figure of Rs. 4.49 crore was mentioned against name of assessee. Accordingly, a show cause notice was issued to assessee. Assessing Officer recorded that assessee failed to furnish details and in absence of any details, made addition of Rs. 4.49 crores. However, it was found that addition was merely based on dump documents found during search. Assessing Officer had not conducted any separate or independent evidence to bring corroborative evidence to connect entry in seized material with assessee. Whether therefore, in absence of any corroborative evidence, no contrary presumption could be drawn against assessee on a mere figure on loose papers and thus, there was no infirmity or illegality in order passed by Commissioner(Appeals) in deleting addition - Held, yes.

Loose Papers are irrelevant as evidence not admissible

➤ Common Cause v. Union of India, (2017) 394 ITR 220 SC

During raids on two business groups, various incriminating materials such as loose sheets, computer prints, hard disks, and pen drives indicating alleged money transactions were seized. However, there was no evidence to establish that these documents and electronic records were maintained regularly in the course of business. The Court held that such materials lacked evidentiary value and could not be relied upon to initiate criminal proceedings, including the registration of an FIR or investigation against high-ranking public officials. It was further held that the seized materials were irrelevant and legally inadmissible under Section 34 of the Indian Evidence Act..

NO APPEAL CAN BE FILED BY DEPARTMENT AGAINST CIT(A) ORDER IF SUCH ORDER IS PASSED ON THE BASIS OF REMAND REPORT

No Appeal can be filed by Department against CIT(A) order if such order is passed on the basis of Remand Report

➤DCIT vs. Bharat Ratilal Shah ITA – 383/MUM/2025

A bare perusal of the impugned order shows that the learned CIT(A) has accepted the Remand Report and has deleted the disallowances made on account of bogus purchases; both inter-branch and other parties, and unexplained expenditure added under Section 69C of the Act. Once the Assessing Officer has accepted the claim of the assessee after due verification of the documents produced, it is difficult to see as to how the Revenue can challenge the same on the spacious ground that the learned CIT(A) was in error in accepting and placing reliance on the Remand Report.

➤ Jivatlal Purtapshi vs CIT [1967] 65 ITR 261 (BOM.)

Whether on appeal to Tribunal can only be taken against a part of order against which appellant can be said to be feeling aggrieved - Held, yes.

During course of assessment, ITO made addition to returned income of assessee as part of branch profits of assessee arising from its branch at "R" – While appeal against said addition was pending a settlement was arrived between assessee and department and department agreed to delete said addition – Accordingly, when AAC decided appeal ITO conceded deletion of said amount and AAC, recording that concession deleted that amount – However, subsequently department appealed to Tribunal against said deletion by AAC - Whether it was impossible that department could be treated as being aggrieved by that part of the order so as to entitled to take an appeal to the Tribunal - Held, yes – Whether therefore, Tribunal had no jurisdiction to deal with said deletion in face of AAC's statement that ITO had conceded point and had no objection to exclusion of that amount from assessment - Held, yes.

DECISIONS WHERE ADDITION IS MADE IS MADE IN RESPECT OF LONG-TERM CAPITAL GAIN EARNED ON SALE OF SHARES TREATED AS PENNY STOCK

Addition in respect of LTCG on sale of shares treated as Penny Stock

➤ PCIT vs. Indravadan Jain HUF [2023] 156 taxmann.com 605 (Bombay)

Where shares were purchased by assessee on floor of stock exchange and not from broker, payment was made through banking channel, deliveries were taken in DEMAT account where shares remained for more than one year, contract notes were issued and shares were also sold on stock exchange, there was no reason to add capital gains as unexplained cash credit under section 68

Assessee had claimed sale proceeds of shares as long-term capital gain (LTCG) exemption - However, A.O. held that scrip was a penny stock and thus, he made an addition of same under section 68 - Commissioner (Appeals) observed that shares were purchased on floor of stock exchange and not from broker, payment was made through banking channel, deliveries were taken in DEMAT account where shares remained for more than one year, contract notes were issued and shares were also sold on stock exchange and, accordingly, held that there was no reason to add capital gains as unexplained cash credit under section 68 - Whether Tribunal had rightly concluded that there was no merit in appeal against Commissioner (Appeals) order - Held, yes

➤CIT vs. Shyam R Pawar [2015] 54 taxmann.com 108 (Bombay)

Where DMAT account and contract note showed details of share transaction, and Assessing Officer had not proved said transaction as bogus, capital gain earned on said transaction could not be treated as unaccounted income under section 68

Assessee declared capital gain on sale of shares of two companies - Assessing Officer, observing that transaction was done through brokers at Calcutta and performance of concerned companies was not such as would justify increase in share prices, held said transaction as bogus and having been done to convert unaccounted money of assessee to accounted income and, therefore, made addition under section 68 - On appeal, Tribunal deleted addition observing that DMAT account and contract note showed credit/details of share transactions; and that revenue had stopped inquiry at particular point and did not carry forward it to discharge basic onus - Whether on facts, transactions in shares were rightly held to be genuine and addition made by Assessing Officer was rightly deleted - Held, yes

Where assessee, engaged in trading of gold and diamond jewellery deposited cash of Rs. 50 lakhs during demonetization period in his bank accounts and claimed that said cash was proceeds of cash sales, since assessee furnished all sales invoices with complete year cash book, names, addresses and telephone numbers of person to whom cash sales were made, such sales could not be considered as unexplained money and that too when profit derived from those sales proceeds was already taxed as part of sales

Addition u/s 69A in respect Cash Deposit during Demonitisation

➤ITO vs. Zee Bangles Pvt. Ltd. ITA no. 815/MUM/2022

Section 69A of the Income Tax Act applies when a person is found to own unexplained money not recorded in their books of account. However, in this case, the assessee had maintained duly audited books under Section 44AB and filed them with the return of income. The assessee substantiated that the cash deposits were from recorded cash sales, supported by proper documentation such as purchase and sales books, and invoices. Given these facts, the Assessing Officer (AO) incorrectly invoked Section 69A. The Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) rightly concluded that Section 69A was not applicable, as the cash deposits were already accounted for and declared as income. Consequently, the Revenue's appeal was dismissed.

➤ Devendra Kumar Gupta vs. PCIT, [2024] 166 taxmann.com 95 (Delhi - Trib.)

Exercise of jurisdiction by the Commissioner under section 263 of the Act against order passed under section 143(3) r.w.s. 153A of the Act, which was passed after taking prior approval of the Addl. CIT, Central Range-2, Pune, cannot stand. Hence, the said exercise of jurisdiction is held to be invalid and bad in law and consequent order passed under section 263 of the Act is thus, cancelled. The grounds of appeal raised by the assessee are thus, allowed.

Approbate and Reprobate

➤K. K. Spun India Ltd. vs. DCIT, ITA – 2005 to 2008/DEL/2024

Secondly revenue has to consequentially reduce returned income if case against assessee is INFLATING BOOKS/ INGENUINE SALES/ PURCHASES as revenue cannot approbate and reprobate.

These phrases are borrowed from the Scots law. They would only mean that no party can be allowed to accept and reject the same thing, and thus one cannot blow hot and cold. The principle behind the doctrine of election is inbuilt in the concept of approbate and reprobate. Once again, it is a principle of equity coming under the contours of common law. Therefore, he who knows that if he objects to an instrument, he will not get the benefit he wants cannot be allowed to do so while enjoying the fruits. One cannot take advantage of one part while rejecting the rest. A person cannot be allowed to have the benefit of an instrument while questioning the same. Such a party either has to affirm or disaffirm the transaction. This principle has to be applied with more vigour as a common law principle, if such a party actually enjoys the one part fully and on near completion of the said enjoyment, thereafter questions the other part. An element of fair play is inbuilt in this principle. It is also a species of estoppel dealing with the conduct of a party. We have already dealt with the provisions of the Contract Act concerning the conduct of a party, and his presumption of knowledge while confirming an offer through his acceptance unconditionally.

Reopening on basis of information u/s 148 after period of 3 years and addition made below Rs. 50 lakhs not sustainable

➤ Santosh vs. ITO, ITA – 2025/DEL/2024

The assessee had sold a property for ₹43 lakhs and reinvested the proceeds in a new property worth ₹90 lakhs. However, the Assessing Officer (AO) issued a notice under section 148 based on alleged sale of immovable property worth ₹1.33 crore, relying on two sources: (i) Sub-Registrar data (₹43 lakhs) and (ii) a TDS return under section 194-IA, which actually pertained to the assessee as a purchaser. The AO mechanically combined both without proper verification, leading to an incorrect assumption of capital gains escapement. The Tribunal held this reopening beyond three years as invalid under the new regime, citing lack of proper application of mind and absence of tangible evidence. Grounds 1.3 to 1.5 were allowed, and the appeal of the assessee was upheld.

Where assessment Order itself is invalid or void then order (u/s 263) passed under revisional authority remains unsustainable

➤ Ambika Alloys vs. PCIT, ITA – 1918 & 1921 /DEL/2024

It is established by law that provision of section 153D is mandatory to initiate assessment or reassessment u/s 153C and in section 263 "any order" does not include an order which is void ab initio. The submission of appellant that approval is mechanical and without application of mind, at best on such approval if any proceeding is initiated it will have null and void effect in the eye of law and will have no relevancy; and that it is not subject to revision. It is also submitted that in the above circumstances any order passed under revisional authority remains unsustainable.
