Life-of-a-CA-Student

CA is a very respected position in our society but it takes courage to be a CA Student, today we are going to uncover the life of a CA Students. Every time, when somebody clears CA Final in our known, we use to see him with a huge respect and why not? The pain, sacrifice, dedication, hard work behind this course must get paid with this respect.

Every time when someone asks you for a movie, you are busy with office work. When friends are enjoying their college life, you have to tolerate your boss, when the family is celebrating Diwali, you have to prepare for November exams, when people are celebrating Sankranti, you have to wait for the result. It seems like CA Student has no social life. But no, CA student has their own social life which is great.

Today we are sharing with you some aspects of a CA students life- what challenges one has to face while pursuing Chartered Accountancy course.

Here we have bought some challenges, some sacrifices and some achievements which are enough to bring a smile over a CA student's face.

So, Let's start –

Once we enroll in this course, we are the happiest person who proudly says to each of our relatives and friends "I am Pursuing Chartered Accountancy".

One who studied properly did not bunk any class and gave a proper revision clears this level usually in the first attempt. But others have to push themselves a little more..

Besides above, we don't get time for the family functions, get together outing with friends etc. But here we get to build a network which gets worth for sacrificing all the above things. Here we also get a chance to travel at so many places for auditing. There we meet plenty of people, know about their businesses, and enjoy their wonderful welcome.

In addition to the office work, students have to give regular 3-4 hours for the self-study. Articleship training teaches us the best time management where one has to manage his studies with the office work.

During the last six months, we have to beg for the preparation leave from our principal who makes us remember all the leaves, all the half days and all the tea breaks we took during 2.5 years. Well, this is the worst part but still, we can make the request only as our certificate of practice lies in the hands of our principal. After making request infinite times, we often get 3-4 months preparation leave.

One who studied properly all three years clears the exam in the first attempt but people who depend on the preparation leave often suffer failure. But once you clear CA Final, all your hardships, sacrifices will get paid. The moment "CA" is added to your name, the cost of losing a college life pays off.

Remember "IF YOU DON'T SACRIFICE FOR WHAT YOU WANT, WHAT YOU WANT BECOMES THE SACRIFICE."

Yes, This is how the life of a chartered accountant student look like!!
